Title: Talaysay's Spoken Treasures – Student Program (K to Grade 12 Only)

Welcome to our Talaysay Spoken Treasures PROGRAM. Type of Program: Student Indigenous Walking Tour - History

Tour Description: Spoken Treasures is a history walking tour that emphasis both the historical and prehistorical history of this land. Join us for a walk along the Stanley Park Seawall to learn how Indigenous societies lived prior to contact, as our guides shared how our peoples' managed their societies, grew economies and stewarded the land. Our peoples were impacted greatly during contact with population loss, residential schools and colonial policies. We share all accounts and conclude our program with the stories of resistance, cultural and language revitalization and reconciliation. This tour is jam packed with stories, traditions, art, history and hope.
